

AURA LEE

1861

Words by W.W. FOSDICK
(1825-1862)

Music by GEORGE R. POULTON
(1855-)

Tenor Lead

1. As the black-bird in the spring,— 'neath the wil-low tree,— Sat and piped, I
2. On her cheek the rose was born, 'twas mu-sic when she spake.— In her eyes the

Baritone Bass

6 heard him sing,— sing of Au-ra Lee. Au-ra Lee, Au-ra Lee, maid of gold-en
7 rays of morn with sud-densplen-dor break.

12 hair. Sun-shine came a - long with thee, and swal-lows in the air. swal-lows in the air.

1. 15 16 2. 17 18