

DANGEROUS DAN McKEW

TONY CERAMI 3-5-84
Side Wonders

With apologies to Robert W. Service.

(1st verse in 1A, 2nd verse in 4A)
(3rd verse in 6B. All written in 6A.)

1. A buncha the boys were whoopin' it up at the Mal - a - mite ca -
 2. - Dangerous Dan was a - playin' his hand and a - keepin' his mind on his

3. - Outa the night that was fifty below and into the clin and the Fe — and the Rag-time Kid at the Mus - ic. Boy was a - game — you could see standin' by with a gleam in her eye and her glare — A man staggered in who was haggard and thin and his

7. jazzin' a tune that was gay. — while back - a - the bar in Ya hair just as red as a flame. — A gal who was tall with a face was filled with des - pair. — He looked all Ya - round Ya -
 Sm Sm Sm

10. — po - ker game sat a man whom ev'ry one knew. — He was — face like a doll and her fingernails painted blue. She was

13. — grim and cold he was bad and bold, he was Dangerous, Dan Mc - lean and serene, she was a gor - geous Queen she was the lady that's known as stranger turned and his eyes they turned on Dangerous Dan Mc -

1. Grew. (~~Oh~~) while 3. Grew-woo-woo-woo Wah
 2. Lou. (~~Oh~~) when

And then suddenly there all the

Wah Wah No No No! Shot rang out and a lights went out and a voice cried die you must! Then a woman screamed, some body bit the dust. lights flashed on and a

Then the North-west Mounted Po-lice came a-crashin' through-de-oo-doo.

For he drew his gun and he said (which one) is Dang er ous Dan M^c

P:3

Dangerous Dan McGrew

32. 33. 34.

Grew - oo-oo? And then some body said (woah hi there) and

35. 36. 37. 40.

skipped a cross the floor — with a one two skip and a

38. 39. 40. 43.

hand on each hip right out through the open door. — Now it

Bm Bm Bm

41. 42. 43. 46.

wasn't the stranger a-takin' his leave or the lady that's known as

44. 45. 46. 49.

hooh — It was no body else in this whole wide world but

Dangerous Dan M'Grew

P. 4.

TAB

47. 48. 49.

Danger ous Dan (Oh! He's awful dangerous all right) Dan-ger-ous

50. 51. 52.

Da-an, Danger ous Dan, he was a big, bad man, and his

53. 54. 55. 56.

name was Da-an Ma-a Ga-rew

DANGEROUS DAN MCGREW

U L L
A bun-cha the boys were whoopin' it up at the Mal-a-mute ca-fe.

And the Rag-time kid at the mu-sic box was a - jazzin' a tune
B B B
that was gay, Bm Bm Bm

While back-a' the bar in a po-ker game sat a man whom ev-ery-one knew.
L L

L L
He was grim and cold, he was bad and bold, he was dangerous
Dan Mc-Grew-ew.

L L L
While Dangerous Dan was a-play-in' his hand and a-keepin' his mind on his ga-a-ame.

You could see stand-in' by with a gleam in her eye and her
B B B
hair just as red as a flame, Bm Bm Bm.

A gal who was tall with a face like a doll and her fingernails
L L
pa-in-ted blue.

L L
She was lean and serene, she was a gor-gous queen, she was the la-dy that's known as Lou-ew.

L L
When ou-ta the night that was fifty below and into the din
and the glare,

A man staggered in who was haggard and thin and his face was filled with dis-pair. Bm, Bm, Bm.
B B B

He looked all a-round un-til he had found the lady that's known
L
as Lou.

L L
Then the stran-ger turned and his eyes they burned on Dan-ger-ous Dan McGrew - woo - woo-woo.

B B B B B B B B B B
 And then sud-den-ly there all the lights went out and a voice
 B B B B TLb TLb TLb
 cried die you must. No No No

B B A
 Then a shot rang out and a wo-man screamed (pause)

somebody bit the dust.

B B A
 Then the lights flashed on & a North-West Mount-ed Po-lice came a-crashin' through-de-doo-doo

B B A N N
 And he drew his gun and he said (which one) is Dan-ger-ous

Dan McGrew - oo - oo?

L L A N N N
 And then some-body said (wal hi there)

U A
 And skipped a-cross the floor -- with a one two skip and a hand on each hip right out through the open door, Bm, Bm, Bm.

A
 Now it wasn't the stran-ger a-takin' his leave or the lady that's known as Lou.

L L A
 It was nobody else in this whole wide world but Dan-ger-ous
 N N N N N N
 Dan. (Oh! he's awful dangerous all right.)

Dan-ger-ous Da-an Dan-ger-ous Dan, he was a big bad man and his name was Da-an Ma-a-Ga-rew!

- A - All
- N - Do not sing
- T - Tenor
- L - Lead
- b - Bari
- B - Bass
- U - Unison