

IF I COULD WRITE A SONG

Arranged by Russell A. Foris

Words and Music by NEIL SEDAKA
and
HOWARD GREENFIELD

INTRO: Freely

Tenor Lead

Baritone Bass

Gee, I wish that I could write a song, but ev-'ry time I try it turns out wrong. Would-n't it be great to write a song, and get the whole wide world to sing a-long? If I could write a song, and get the world to sing a - long,— Think of all the mu - sic there would

REFRAIN:

12 be. there would be. 13 The earth would start to ring and

14 ev - 'ry-one would sing a song of peace and love and har - mo - ny. 15 16 With

17 three bil - lion voic - es sing - ing to - geth - er what a hap - py 18 19 Oh,

20 sound. And just to think, it's my mu - sic mak - in' the world go 21 22 23

24 'round, and 'round, Then peo - ple feel - in' sad would have a 25

26 ³ mel - o - dy, rea - son to be glad, — I would do it with a mel - o - dy, — . If 27 28 mel - o - dy,
 3 mel - o - dy,
 3 mel - o - dy,

I could get all the world to sing a ₃ - long, — 29 I could write a song and get the world to sing a ₃ - long, — How
 I could get all the world to sing a - long, —
 30 I could get all the world to sing a ₃ - long, —
 I could get all the world to sing a ₃ - long, —

Optional repeat to measure 29

31 won - der - ful this world would be. — If would be. —
 32 would be. —

33 won - der - ful this world would be, you'd see! — How won - der - ful this 34 35 TAG:

36 world would be, gee, what a world this would be! —
 37 38