

NOBODY'S SINGING AT THE OLD BARBERSHOP

Arranged by MAC HUFF

Words and Music by MAC HUFF

VERSE:

Tenor Lead

Where's the gang, that good old gang, that sang of Co - ney

Baritone Bass

Isle? I won't for-get that old quar-tet that al-ways brought a smile. — They sang all the old songs like "Heart_ Of My Heart." Oh, gee, how I miss them, oh, why did they have to part? — (to part?)
(Co - ney Isle?)

Isle? _____

(to part?)

(to part?)

CHORUS:

No - bod - y's sing - ing at the old bar - ber - shop, — The tunes have all fad - ed a - way; — No - bod - y's

a - way;
a - way: And no - bod - y's

sing - ing 'bout "Sweet A - de - line." Her (A - de - line,)
sing - ing 'bout "Sweet A - de - line." (A - de - line,)

name is just a mem - o - ry to - day, — to - day. —

Give me a song that fills my heart full of joy, A
(of joy,)
(of joy,)

(of old.)

37 38 39 40

song like those mel - o - dies of old. When

(of old.)

(of old.)

41 42 43 44

ev - er I am blue let me sing a phrase or two of the (bar - ber - shop.)

45 46 47 48

songs they sang at the old - bar - ber - shop. I

(bar - ber - shop.)

(bar - ber - shop.)

TAG:

49 50

love those songs, those great old songs they 51 52

sang - at the old - bar - ber - shop, - bar - ber - shop.