

Dedicated to the Notewits
TRICK OR TREAT

Arranged by DICK FLOERSHEIMER

Words and Music by DICK FLOERSHEIMER

VERSE

TENOR Freely

LEAD

BARITONE

BASS

1 2

Up - on Oc - to - ber's fi - nal day just as the sun goes down, The kids be - gin to trick or treat and I be - gin to frown; And then I smile as I re - call a fall of yes - ter - day When

3 4

5 6

7 8

ev - 'ry - one had so much fun, I'm tempt - ed now to say:

REFRAIN

9 10

Would - n't you like to wear a sheet and go up and down the street? Why don't we go trick or treat-ing once a - gain? And I could put on tramp-y clothes, smear some

a-gain?

a-gain?

a-gain?

lip-stick on my nose, And go hap-py trick or treat-ing once a - gain. 1. Let's put some
2. We'll let the soap on Ol' Man Dex-ter's win-dows, And then we'll dump the Fish-er's gar-bage air from Mis-ter Arm-strong's ti-res, Un - til they're just as flat as they can can. We'll stick a pin in Miss-us Aber-crom-bie's front door bell, And then we'll be. We'll take the cush-ions out of Miss-us Mean-y's front porch swing, And put them run a - way as quick-ly as we can. _____ up in Mis - ter Ad - am's ap - ple tree. _____ We can get

Oh, man!
tee hee!

Oh, man!
tee hee!

Oh, man!
tee hee!

25 26 27

can-dy corn ga-lore as we go from door to door, And we'll eat un-til we get a pain and 28 29 30

then ____ We'll do ex - act - ly what we did when you were just a kid: We can and then
and then

1 31 32

start out trick or treat-ing once a - gain, a - gain. Would-n't you have a time that's real-ly peach - y keen, ____ Trick or peach-y keen,

2 33 34

peach-y keen,

TAG 35 36 37 38

treat-ing for a hap - py Hal - low - hap - py Hal - low - e'en, Boo!