I love me to sit in the sun's ves - per glow, With my friend ev - er faith - ful and kind; As I touch its great strings, with my well res - ined bow, There is ne'er such a friend I can find! With each deep, mel - low note from its well mould - ed throat, There's a world of com - pan - ion - ship there, And they soothe me to rest with the songs I love best, As I sit in my old wick - er chair!

Bass lead
