

Dogwood Dell

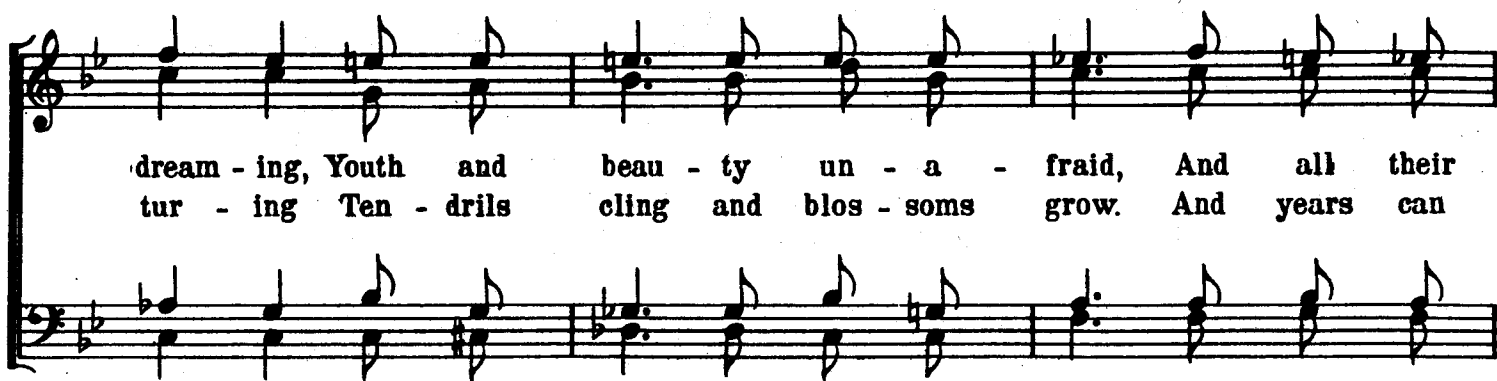

Words and Music by
J. W. PENNYPACKER

1. I know a dell where dog - woods gleam - ing Their se - cret 2. The breath of Spring, to love al - lur - ing, Fore - tells the tell to man and maid, That all is well for lov - ers flame of Au - tumn glow; Thru ev - 'ry change of love ma - dream - ing, Youth and beau - ty un - a - fraid, And all their tur - ing Ten - drills cling and blos - soms grow. And years can spell had mag - ic mean - ing When I heard the words you said. bring to love en - dur - ing Still the dream of long a - go. How well do you re - mem - ber The dell where dog - woods grow, - Where love's bright dream by wood - land stream Be - gan so long a - go? - As year by year re - turn - ing The gleam - ing pet - als show, - So year by year you'll love me, dear, The dog - woods tell me so! - And dog-woods grow!

year by year I'll love you, dear, As long as dog-woods grow! - - -
dog-woods grow!