

Good-bye, My Lady Love

Words and Music by
JOSEPH E. HOWARD
Arr. by Sigmund Spaeth

INTRO.

Good-bye, be - lov - ed, good-bye, be - lov - ed,
Good - bye, be - lov - ed, good - bye, be - lov - ed, good -
Good-bye, be - lov - ed, good-bye, be - lov - ed,
good-bye, good-bye, good-bye, good - bye! ———
bye, good - bye, good - bye, good - bye! ———
good-bye, good-bye, good-bye, good - bye! ———

VERSE

So ——— you're going a - way, ——— Be-cause your heart ——— has gone a -
your heart
gone a - stray, —
stray, a - stray, And ——— you prom-ised me ——— That you would
gone a - stray,
al - ways faith - ful be, ——— faith - ful. Go ——— to him you love, ———

stars a - bove,

— And be as true — as stars a - bove, a - bove, But —

as true stars a - bove,

re - turn.

— your heart will yearn, — and then some day you will re - turn. —

re - turn.

CHORUS

Good-bye, My La-dy Love, Fare-well, my turtle dove, You are the i - dol and dar-ling of my heart, But some day you will come back to me — and love me

1. 2.

ten-der-ly, So Good-bye, My La-dy Love, goodbye, good-bye. bye, good- bye.