1. O - ver in the sands of Jer - sey, Where the wa - ter - mel - ons grow.
 2. Up in Man - a - yunk the mill hands Make the hills and val - leys ring.
 3. On the ban - jo and the or - gan, On the fid - dle and the flute.
 4. Ev - 'ry cheap and five cent bar - ber, Tries to make the bus - ness pay.

Dwells a youth who whis - tles ev - er, This one tune, all he does know.
 When the long day's work is o - ver, As they trav - el home and sing.
 On the cor - net and the ka - zoo, Ev - 'ry - bod - y tries to toot.
 So his sign up - on the shut - ter, To the crowd is made to say.

Refrain

John - ny get your hair cut, hair cut, hair cut, John - ny get your hair cut, { like a sport. }
 { like all gents. }

John - ny get your hair cut, hair cut, hair cut, John - ny get your hair cut, { hair cut short. }
 { fif - teen cents. } D.C.

(melody 2nd Bass)

5. Many folks are fond of music,
 Some, they like it not at all.
 Get your gun if any neighbor
 In your ear begins to squall.

6. Now my song at last is ended,
 Let me give all a rest.
 Never more to find me singing,
 This old tune we love the best.
