

My Home Town Is A One Horse Town

Words by ALEX GERBER

But It's Big Enough For Me

Music by ABNER SILVER
Arr. by John Hill

INTRODUCTION

Brightly (Not too fast)

My home town is a one horse town, But it's big e-nough for me, for me; — In a one horse town lived young Rue-ben Brown, — That's where he spent all his years eight-teen; A cit-y months rolled by Rue - ben tho'the'd try, — See - ing the mer - ry white way a - way; And so he friend came down, down to this coun-try town, — He had those big-town i - deas (clk clk) He said packed his grip and start-ed on his trip, — He land - ed there the next day, — Soon he

VERSE

"Rue - ben you've been here too long Why don't you leave your coun-try - side? found out Broad-way was a fraud way He said, "It's no place to be,

Be - hind you
For me there's

What a pit - y you're not in the cit - y," Then Rue-ben just re - plied: said he: — Too much gim - me, and too too much shim-my, The sim-ple life for me, for me." —

REFRAIN

My home town is a one horse town But it's big e - nough for me, for me, The pop-u - la-tion is scat-tered and small— You can't find the town on an - y map at all; But just the same it means the world to me To be with moth-er and my fam-i - ly,

My home town is a one horse town, But it's big e - nough for me. Af - ter

1. to Verse

me. me. Oh my home town is a one horse town But it's big e - nough for me.

2. close

3. with Tag ending