

Some Little Bug Is Going To Find You

Words by ROY ATWELL and
BENJAMIN HAPGOOD BURT

Music by SILVIO HEIN
Arr. by Len Field

INTRODUCTION

Moderato

VERSE

Hoo Hoo Woo-hoo, Woo-hoo-hoo-hoo-hoo 1. It is oft-en times a ques-tion in this vit-ing green cu-cum-ber, gets most age of in-di-ges-tion as to what to eat and what to leave a-lone, look out for germs! For each ev-'ry-bo-dy's num-ber and the green corn has a sys-tem of its own, While the mic-robe and ba-cil-lus has a diff-'rent way to kill us and in time they al-ways claim us for their rad-ish and the cab-bage oft-en make un-pleas-ant bag-gage and may in-tro-duce the doc-tor in your own. There are germs of ev-'ry kind in an-y food that you can find In the home. Eat-ing lob-s-ter cooked or plain is on-ly flirt-ing with 'to-maine and an mar-ket or up-on the bill of fare, be-ware! Drink-ing wat-er's just as risk-y as the oys-ter some-times has a lot to say, But the clams we eat in chow-der make the

Woo

REFRAIN

so-called dead-ly whis-key, And it's oft - en a mis-take to breathe the air. — Some lit - tle an-gels sing the loud-er, For they know that we'll be with them right a - way. —

oo! oo! oo! oo! —
bug is going to find you some-day oo! Some lit-tle bug will sneak be-hind you some-day! Then he'll oo! oo! oo! oo! —
oo! oo! oo! oo! —

send for his bug friends earth-ly trou-ble ends — Some lit-tle bug is going to find you
and all your

1. some-day. Op - en up the gates Saint Pe - ter here we come, 2. The in - some-day — some lit - tle bug — is going to find you some day.