

WON'T SOMEONE PLEASE SPEAK KINDLY TO THE TENOR?

Arranged by LYLE PILCHER

Words by STIRLING WILSON
Music by MARK BOWSHER

VERSE

1 I heard a bar - ber - shop quar - tet 2 re - hears - ing, They were

3 sing - ing of the moon - light on the lake; 4 And as us - u - al, the ten - or they were

6 curs - ing, 7 When some - one said hey stop! 8 For heav - en's sake! The sake, for heav - en's sake!

9 wrong, 10 ten - or's al - ways, al - ways wrong, 11 He's ru - in - ing our song, 12 When it song, our song, wrong,

13 comes to sing - ing flat he takes the cake, 14 cake, he takes the cake, 15 Then 1

Copyright 1959, F. Stirling Wilson and Mark Bowsher.

Used by permission

Arrangement Copyright 1960 by S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A. Inc., Kenosha, Wisconsin

International Copyright Secured

17 heard this mourn - ful plea 18 As he fell on bend - ed knee, 19 The 20

21 ten - or whines I'm so ma - ligned, 22 Why do they pick on me? 23 Won't 24

REFRAIN

25 Some - one please speak kind - ly to the ten - or, the ten - or? 26 He al - ways does the 27 28 29

30 ver - y best he can, best he can; 31 They say he's sing - ing flat, 32 but he 33 34

35 might be right at that, 36 Why do they al - ways put him on the 37 38

put him on the pan? 39 40 41 42 43 44 pan? _____ He's us - ing too much pow'r, His put him on the pan? I say his notes are sour, _____

45 46 47 48

voice is much too much vi - bra - to, his phras - ing is stac - ca - to, The

49 50 51 52 53

ten - or is the real for - got - ten man; _____ His voice is good, he thinks, Con - fi - den - tial - ly he don't say it Won't some - one please speak

54 55 56 57

58 59 60 61 62

kind - ly to the ten the ten - or? _____

to the ten